FREEDOM OF INFORMATION LAW

PUBLIC OFFICERS LAW, ARTICLE 6, SECTIONS 84-90 FREEDOM OF INFORMATION LAW

Section	84. Legislative declaration.
	88. Access to state legislative records.
	85. Short title.
	89. General provisions relating to access to records.
	86. Definitions certain cases.
	87. Access to agency records.
	90. Severability.

§84. Legislative declaration.

The legislature hereby finds that a free society is maintained when government is responsive and responsible to the public, and when the public is aware of governmental actions. The more open a government is with its citizenry, the greater the understanding and participation of the public in government.

As state and local government services increase and public problems become more sophisticated and complex and therefore harder to solve, and with the resultant increase in revenues and expenditures, it is incumbent upon the state and its localities to extend public accountability wherever and whenever feasible.

The people's right to know the process of governmental decision-making and to review the documents and statistics leading to determinations is basic to our society. Access to such information should not be thwarted by shrouding it with the cloak of secrecy or confidentiality. The legislature therefore declares that government is the public's business and that the public, individually and collectively and represented by a free press, should have access to the records of government in accordance with the provisions of this article.

§85. Short title.

This article shall be known and may be cited as the "Freedom of Information Law."

papers, designs, drawings, maps, photos, letters, microfilms, computer tapes or discs, rules, regulations or codes.

5. "Critical infrastructure" means systems, assets, places or things, whether physical or virtual, so vital to the state that the disruption, incapacitation or destruction of such systems, assets, places or things could jeopardize the health, safety, welfare or security of the state, its residents or its economy.

- (2) the manner of identifying persons within the agency to whose custody the records or parts will be charged and for whose inspection and study the records will be made available;
- (3) the manner of safeguarding against any unauthorized access to the records.

(b) As used in this subdivision the term "agency" or "state agency" means only a state department, board, bureau, division, council or office and any public corporation the majority of whose members are appointed by the governor.

§89. General provisions relating to access to records; certain cases.

The provisions of this section apply to access to all records, except as hereinafter specified:

1. (a) The committee on open government is continued and shall consist of the lieutenant governor or the delegate of such officer, the secretary of state or the delegate of such officer, whose office shall act as secretariat for the committee, the commissioner of the office of general services or the delegate of such officer, the director of the budget or the delegate of such officer, and seven other persons, none of whom shall hold any other state or local public office except the representative of local governments as set forth herein, to be appointed as follows: five by the governor, at least two of whom are or have been representatives of the news media, one of whom shall be a representative of local government who, at the time of appointment, is serving as a duly elected officer of a local government, one by the temporary president of the senate, and one by the speaker of the assembly. The persons appointed by the temporary president of the senate and the speaker of the assembly shall be appointed to serve, respectively, until the expiration of the terms of office of the temporary president and the speaker to which the temporary president and speaker were elected. The four persons presently serving by appointment of the government for fixed terms shall continue to serve until the expiration of their respective terms. Thereafter, their respective successors shall be appointed for terms of four years. The member representing local government shall be appointed for a term of four years, so long as such member shall remain a duly elected officer of a local government. The committee shall hold no less than two meetings annually, but may meet at any time. The members of the committee shall be entitled to reimbursement for actual expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties.

- v. report on its activities and findings regarding articles six and seven of this chapter, including recommendations for changes in the law, to the governor and the legislature annually, on or before December fifteenth.
- (a) The committee on open government may promulgate guidelines regarding deletion of identifying details or withholding of records otherwise available under this article to prevent unwarranted invasions of personal privacy. In the absence of such guidelines, an agency may delete identifying details when it makes records available.
 - (b) An unwarranted invasion of personal privacy includes, but shall not be limited to:
 - i. disclosure of employment, medical or credit histories or personal references of applicants for employment;
 - ii. disclosure of items involving the medical or personal records of a client or patient in a medical facility;
 - iii. sale or release of lists of names and addresses if such lists would be used for commercial or fund-raising purposes;
 - iv. disclosure of information of a personal nature when disclosure would result in economic or personal hardship to the subject party and such information is not relevant to the work of the agency requesting or maintaining it;
 - v. disclosure of information of a personal nature reported in confidence to an agency and not relevant to the ordinary work of such agency; or
 - vi. information of a personal nature contained in a workers' compensation record, except as provided by section one hundred ten-a of the workers' compensation law.
 - (c) Unless otherwise provided by this article, disclosure shall not be construed to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subdivision:
 - i. when identifying details are deleted;
 - ii. when the person to whom a record pertains consents in writing to disclosure;
 - iii. when upon presenting reasonable proof of identity' a person seeks access to records pertaining to him.

2-a. Nothing in this article shall permit disclosure which constitutes an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy as defined in subdivision two of this section if such disclosure is prohibited under section ninety-six of this chapter.

3. Each entity subject to the provisions of this article, within five business days of the receipt of a written request for a record reasonably described, shall make such record available to the person requesting it, deny such request in writing or furnish a written acknowledgment of the receipt of such request and a statement of the approximate date, which shall be reasonable under the circumstances of the request, when such request will be granted or denied, including, where appropriate, a statement that access to the record will be determined in accordance with subdivision five of this section. If an agency determines to grant a request in whole or in part, and if circumstances prevent disclosure to the person requesting the record or records within twenty business days from the date of the acknowledgement of the receipt of the request, the agency shall state, in writing, both the reason for the inability to grant the request within twenty business days and a date certain within a reasonable period, depending on the circumstances, when the request will be granted in whole or in part. Upon payment of, or offer to pay, the fee prescribed therefor, the entity shall provide a copy of such record and certify to the correctness of such copy if so requested, or as the case may be, shall certify that it does not have possession of such record or that such record cannot be found after diligent search.

Nothing in this article shall be construed to require any entity to prepare any record not possessed or maintained by such entity except the records specified in subdivision three of section eighty-seven and subdivision three of section eighty-eight.

4. (a) Except as provided in subdivision five of this section, any person denied access to a record may within thirty days appeal in writing such denial to the head, chief executive or governing body of the entity, or the person therefor designated by such head, chief executive, or governing body, who shall within ten business days of the receipt of such appeal fully explain in writing to the person requesting the record the reasons for further denial, or provide access to the record sought. In addition, each agency shall immediately forward to the committee on open government a copy of such appeal when received by the agency and the ensuing determination thereon. Failure by an agency to conform to the provisions of subdivision three of this section shall constitute a denial.
- (b) Except as provided in subdivision five of this section, a person denied access to a record in an appeal determination under the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subdivision may bring a proceeding for review of such denial pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules. In the event that access to any record is denied pursuant to the provisions of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of this article, the agency involved shall have the burden of proving that such record falls within the provisions of such subdivision two. Failure by an agency to conform to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall constitute a denial.
- (c) The court in such a proceeding may assess, against such agency involved, reasonable attorney's fees and other litigation costs reasonably incurred by such person in any case under the provisions of this section in which such person has substantially prevailed, provided, that such attorney's fees and litigation costs may be recovered only where the court finds that:
 - i. the record involved was, in fact, of clearly significant interest to the general public; and
 - ii. the agency lacked a reasonable basis in law for withholding the record.

5. (a) (1) A person acting pursuant to law or regulation who, subsequent to the effective date of this subdivision, submits any information to any state agency may, at the time of submission, request that the agency except such information from disclosure under paragraph (d) of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of this article. Where the request itself contains information which if disclosed would defeat the purpose for which the exception is sought, such information shall also be excepted from disclosure.

(1-a) A person or entity who submits or otherwise makes available any records to any agency, may, at any time, identify those records or portions thereof that may contain critical infrastructure information, and request that the agency that maintains such records except such information from disclosure under subdivision two of section eighty-seven of this article. Where the request itself contains information which if disclosed would defeat the purpose for which the exception is sought, such information shall also be excepted from disclosure.

- (2) The request for an exception shall be in writing and state the reasons why the information should be excepted from disclosure.
 - (3) Information submitted as provided in subparagraphs one and one-a of this paragraph shall be excepted from disclosure and be maintained apart by the agency from all other records until fifteen days after the entitlement to such exception has been finally determined or such further time as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.
- (b) On the initiative of the agency at any time, or upon the request of any person for a record excepted from disclosure pursuant to this subdivision, the agency shall:
- i. inform the person who requested the exception of the agency's intention to determine whether such exception should be granted or continued;
 - ii. permit the person who requested the exception, within ten business days of receipt of notification from the agency, to submit a written statement of the necessity for the granting or continuation of such exception;
 - iii. within seven business days of receipt of such written statement, or within seven business days of the expiration of the period prescribed for submission of such statement, issue a written determination granting, continuing or terminating such exception and stating the reasons therefor; copies of such determination shall be served upon the person, if any, requesting the record, the person who requested the exception, and the committee on open government.
- (c) A denial of an exception from disclosure under paragraph (b) of this subdivision may be appealed by the person submitting the information and a denial of access to the record may be appealed by the person requesting the record in accordance with this subdivision.
- (1) Within seven business days of receipt of written notice denying the request, the person may file a written appeal from the determination of the agency with the head of the agency, the chief executive officer or governing body or their designated representatives.
 - (2) The appeal shall be determined within ten business days of the receipt of the appeal. Written notice of the determination shall be served upon the person, if any, requesting the record, the person who requested the exception and the committee on public access to records. The notice shall contain a statement of the reasons for the determination.
- (d) A proceeding to review an adverse determination pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subdivision may be commenced pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules. Such proceeding, when brought by a person seeking an exception from disclosure pursuant to this subdivision, must be commenced within fifteen days of the service of the written notice containing the adverse determination provided for in subparagraph two of paragraph (c) of this subdivision.
- (e) The person requesting an exception from disclosure pursuant to this subdivision shall in all proceedings have the burden of proving entitlement to the exception.

- (f) Where the agency denies access to a record pursuant to paragraph (d) of subdivision two of section eighty-seven of this article, the agency shall have the burden of proving that the record falls within the provisions of such exception.
- (g) Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to deny any person access, pursuant to the remaining provisions of this article, to any record or part excepted from disclosure upon the express written consent of the person who had requested the exception.
- (h) As used in this subdivision the term "agency" or "state agency" means only a state department, board, bureau, division, council or office and any public corporation the majority of whose members are appointed by the governor.

6. Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit or abridge any otherwise available right of access at law or in equity of any party to records.

7. Nothing in this article shall require the disclosure of the home address of an officer or employee, former officer or employee, or of a retiree of a public employees' retirement system; nor shall anything in this article require the disclosure of the name or home address of a beneficiary of a public employees' retirement system or of an applicant for appointment to public employment; provided however, that nothing in this subdivision shall limit or abridge the right of an employee organization, certified or recognized for any collective negotiating unit of an employer pursuant to article fourteen of the civil service law, to obtain the name or home address of any officer, employee or retiree of such employer, if such name or home address is otherwise available under this article.

8. Any person who, with intent to prevent public inspection of a record pursuant to this article, willfully conceals or destroys any such record shall be guilty of a violation.

§90. Severability.

If any provision of this article or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is adjudged invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, such judgment shall not affect or impair the validity of the other provisions of the article or the application thereof to other persons and circumstances.

OPEN MEETINGS LAW

PUBLIC OFFICERS LAW, ARTICLE 7, SECTIONS 100-111 OPEN MEETINGS LAW

This section also provides that all state and local authorities, and their subsidiaries, to the extent practicable, are required to stream all open meetings and public hearings on their website in real-time and post the video recordings on their website within five business days of the meeting or public hearing. The video recordings must be maintained on their website for no less than five years.

Access to meetings and public hearings: A meeting is a gathering of a public body for the purpose of conducting public business, whether in person or by videoconferencing, and includes Authority regular, committee, and subcommittee meetings. The intent of Open Meetings Law (OML) is to promote openness and transparency when Authorities conduct public business. As such, all Authority meetings shall be open to the public, except in limited instances when it is appropriate to enter into executive session to discuss specific permitted matters. See ABO Policy Guidance 09-01: Appropriate Use of Executive Session.

Ensuring openness and transparency of board meetings: The public must be given enough notice and information about scheduled board meetings to allow them to stay reasonably up to date on the Authority's activities, and to know what matters the board expects to address at a meeting. Authorities are to ensure the following documents are provided and requirements are met:

- Public Notice: Authorities should post public notice at least 72 hours in advance of a board meeting. The notice should include the date, time, and location of the meeting, locations where videoconferencing will take place if applicable, and the URL address to view the meeting on the live-streaming platform.
- Agenda: It is expected the Authority post an agenda at least one week in advance of the meeting. Posting the agenda increases transparency by allowing the public to know in advance what matters will be reviewed, discussed and scheduled for a vote.
- Board Materials: A board book or board packet should be provided to members before a meeting and made available to the public. It should include information relevant to the items on the agenda needed for board members to attend board meetings prepared and ready to participate.
 - o Common materials include, but are not limited to, the agenda, minutes from the previous meeting, financial statements, management/committee reports, compliance items, updates on legal issues, and background information of discussion items.
 - o Any proposed resolution, law, rule, regulation, policy, or any amendment thereto, scheduled to be the subject of discussion by a public body during an open meeting shall be made available, upon request, and to the extent practicable at least 24 hours prior to the meeting during which the records will be discussed.
- Meeting Conduct/Access: The board should ensure all reasonable efforts are made to hold meetings in a facility which can adequately accommodate members of the public, including the needs of physically handicapped persons. Meetings should be scheduled during a reasonable time and should be open to be photographed, broadcast, and webcast so long as it is not disruptive. Meetings should be directed by the board Chair, or the vice Chair if the Chair is unavailable.

- Video Conferencing: There are two ways to use videoconferencing to conduct meetings. One is the “pre-Covid” way, in which there are multiple public locations from which members of the Authority may attend that are connected by videoconferencing. The second way permits a member to participate in a meeting via videoconferencing from a private location due to “extraordinary circumstances” such as a disability which would otherwise prevent the member from physically attending. The use of videoconferencing must comply with the requirements of Section 103-a of POL; See ABO Meetings - Best Practices Guide for Public Authorities.

- Quorum and Voting: A quorum of board members of the Authority must be in attendance before a meeting can begin. If videoconferencing is used, enough board members must be present in the same physical location or locations where the public can attend in order to fulfill the quorum requirements. Members may not attend by teleconference, as voting members and their surroundings must be visible to those in attendance. For this reason, other means of conducting a meeting, such as email or mail, are also impermissible.

- o Votes may only be held during a meeting at which a quorum is present, either physically or via videoconference. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, a vote which is not held during a meeting where a quorum is present shall have no effect.

- Executive Session: Since OML requires that public business be conducted where the public can observe, executive sessions shall only be used for the specific, limited purposes listed under Section 105 of POL. Before entering an executive session, the members must take a vote in an open meeting. The motion to enter executive session must provide enough details about the purpose of the meeting and subject matter that will be discussed to make it clear that an executive session is appropriate. See ABO Policy Guidance 09-01: Appropriate Use of Executive Session.

- Meeting Minutes: Minutes shall be taken at all open meetings and are required to include a record or summary of all motions, proposals, resolutions, and any other matter formally voted on, including the results of the vote. Minutes are to be taken at executive session of any action that is taken by formal vote and are required to include a record or summary of the final determination of the action, and the date and results of the vote. The minutes should note which if any members attended remotely via videoconferencing.

- o Minutes of regular open meetings are to be made available and posted within two weeks from the date of the meeting. Unabridged video recordings, unabridged audio recordings, or unabridged written transcripts may be deemed to be meeting minutes for purposes of this requirement.

- o Minutes of executive session are to be made available within one week from the date of the executive session.

- o While OML does not require these minutes be approved within the required time periods, posting in draft form is acceptable.

- o It is expected that meeting minutes be maintained on the Authority’s website for at least two years following the date on which the meeting was held.
